It is beautiful and well crafted. The latch is a little tricky. It was purchased 5 years ago and it is still working. I highly recommend this watch.Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Would have cost more to repair the Citizen than buying this new Bulova which made it an easy decision. Happy with purchase, in hand its a nice looking watch. Wish Bulova still used their tuning fork logo on the watch face. The clasp takes a bit of getting used to. No glow in the dark hands but it does have a date window. So those are the only detractors I can think of, pretty minor compared to the perks. The crystal is domed to match the case contours and has a bit of magnifying effect. Well see how well it lasts for the next few years.Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again The model number is accurate; it is the Bulova 96G46 from the Classic collection. 2 Unlike the photo, mine has the Bulova fork at the 12 oclock position. All other markings are small, silver squares at each number position. Just above that is a fork, not another dot. 3 The three hands and the date indicator are all that are left inside. Its very simple and very elegant. 4 The glass is curved and is hard to view at certain angles.<http://stickers-moins-cher.com/userfiles/stickers-moins-cher.com/emerson-wireless-bluetooth-headphones-manual.xml>

When looking directly at it, it makes it larger and clearer. When looking from an angle, its skewed. While this seems critical, its actually kind of cool. It adds to the elegance of the watch. 5 It seems thinner than it is. I own a nice Pulsar thats quite a bit thinner, so its not like its thin; that said, its not thick either. But for some weird reason, on the wrist, it LOOKS thin. 6 The band took me a little bit to get used to. I like it. But its weird in how it opens and closes. Id hate to try to take this thing off after two days of wear after too many glasses of wine. Its not HARD, but its TRICKY. That said, the clasps and closing mechanism are nearly indistinguishable from the band itself. Again, simple look, elegant feel. 7 Its smaller than you think. I put it on and saw the glow of white skin from my usual watch peering out. Its smallish. And I like that. 8 Pretty easy to read. The hands dont glow or have glow tips. But when I look down, the time is clear to read and see. 9 I read complaints about scratches and refurbished this and that. Refurb Maybe. Im satisfied. You see I rated it 5 stars. This price is pretty awesome. So is the watch. It is simple, elegant and appropriate for everyday work wear, casual wear, or even formal wear. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again It keeps time perfectly, it looks great, It was easy to fit the band to my wrist. The instructions made it easy to set both time and date. It is comfortable to wear 4.0 oz on my wifes kitchen scale. The only drawback is that under some conditions of low light, the combination of black dial, silver hands and reflections off the rounded crystal make it a bit difficult to read not impossible. Overall, I like it! Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again I wasnt able to push the crown back in and get the watch to work. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote.

Please try again I went to the mall jewelery shops and they said the links would cost 67 freakin dollars!!! So then I just found this simple jeweler and sold my watch to him and paid the difference of 50 bucks for a gold chain!! Lesson learned I will never buy from this seller again. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again He absolutely loved it and wears it all the time. Design is so awesome along with silver dial and chain. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again When I got the watch and took it out of the box it was hanging from the pillow like someone just threw it in box then it was scratched and scuffed on both sides on all links. I contacted Amazon for a refund. Then I contacted Deluxe Deals the seller of the watch to tell them how the watch looked and of course they stated they check all watches before shipping and seemed as they were pointing blame at Amazon on how it was shipped and that product must have gotten mixed up with other sellers. I thought that was funny because their name was on return package and of course when I stated that fact they never wrote me back. I also told them if someone checked the watch they need glasses because the damage that was on watch had nothing to do with how it was shipped the watch was damaged when it was put into its box not that box it was shipped in. I saw a lot of good reviews but dont agree with any of them. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote.
